I gotta say farewell again
I'm hoping this will be the end
'Cause I'm broken on my back again
Forsaken by a faithless friend

And after all this time I've come to realize
I do the very things that I've come to despise
And all the while you're waiting for me to bow the knee

Wanting, waiting knowing you would satisfy
'Cause I won't take it anymore, my hand is on the door

I'm leaving this for good - oh I wish I would
'Cause this life I leave behind for another kind
Taking every memory of all the inconsistency away
[It's a] Bittersweet goodbye

And I'm back up on my feet again
And I'm running to the tunnel's end
And I'm holding on to you again
Forgiven by a faithful friend
