Infiltrate the mind
With sickening visions of apathy as you writhe in pain
Excruciating agony
Senses overwhelm your lungs stop breathing
Body growing numb you heart stops beating
Now I have control
Screams will do no good
Your soul I command
Watch you twitch and squirm so sweet
Tasting blood I salivate
Curdled screams I mute with gags
Hopeless torment never ends
I stand over your battered bones and her you plead for death
Laughing at the horror I creat and I inflict Open sores are gushing pus and throbbing with each pulse
New level of suffering as you are stripped of skin

Decadent orgy of atrocious suffering
Calling my name as you beg for your life to end
Keep you alive for my own amusement
Decadent orgy of atrocious suffering
Eyes roll back in your head unconcious
I revive awful cries hope had died
Vile heap before me yet you breathe
Forever you dwell fleshless cell
Senses overwhelm your lungs stop breathing
Body growing numb your heart stops beating
Infiltrate the mind
With sickening visions of apathy as you writhe in pain
Excruciating agony
