Don't you realize it's all the same
Why don't you go back from where you came
You found it and cannot leave
You're losing and cannot believe
That you're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light
You're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light

Don't you realize we're all the same
Escape and go back from where you came
You found her you won't leave
Defeated refuse to receive

That you're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light
You're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light
You're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light
You're settled in the night
And can't emerge in the light
You're settled...settled...
You're settled
Settled in the night
You're settled in the night
Emerging I just might

I just might
I just might
I just might
Just might
