"Reach The Sky"

Wonderous clouds floating above
Stealing my breath as I speak
Take a quick glance at your heart
Just to see what you stand for

If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you wouldn't have to hide
If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you would put light in my life
Only then I would accept who you are

How come you don't come with me
See my futures how they grow
Wish you could see things my way
But you stepped right outside my light

If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you wouldn't have to hide
If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you would put light in my life
Only then I would accept who you are

If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you wouldn't have to hide
If only you would reach the sky
Maybe you would put light in my life
Only then I would accept...
Only then I would accept who you are
