In the age that's full of lies
You'll see me wandering
Within the hatred and deceit
You'll see me fly

Through all the hearts and minds contend
I'll see you suffering
And the only thing I'd want
Is to see you smile

Come with me
I will shine a light for you
I'll show you the right way to go
Come along
And I'll put your mind at ease
I'll help you live your life in peace

All the people on the earth
Will never understand
That the purpose of this life
Is just a test

I will watch you from above
Hoping that one day
You could only see the light
And see what's true

Come with me
I will shine a light for you
I'll show you the right way to go
Come along
And I'll put your mind at ease
I'll help you live your life in peace

Come with me
Though streams and mountains may erode
I'll show you where your heart will go
Come along
I will lift you off your feet
If only you would come with me
So come with me
