This is an astral awakening
Fixations there for the taking
Nothing could be more surreal
Soft to the sight and the feel
This is a strong understanding
Nocturnal opposition

I'm the eclipse of your lifetime
I'm the reason for your sorrow
Wonder when this moment will move out
Wonder if I'll ever retreat now
I'm the eclipse of all the pleasure
What a painful sight to remember
I guess I've lost all my senses
I am now in complete contention

How much longer will I sit here
Reoccurring dreams won't disappear
Terrified to come out in the open
Afraid to leave and it's all because

I'm the eclipse of your lifetime
I'm the reason for your sorrow
Wonder when this moment will move out
Wonder if I'll ever retreat now
I'm the eclipse of all the pleasure
What a painful sight to remember
I guess I've lost all my senses
I am now in complete contention

Crack open my shell and release me
I won't retreat please believe me
I will stand by your side and without fear
When all the dust and the darkness clear
