Hey I've lost you
Where did you run to
There I'll search for you
Your love is what pushes me on

To the forest of love
Is where I lost you
The forest of love
Is where I could find you
I've a light to find you
Illuminating a path
Of possible roots
To find you at last
I search through the trees
In the soil on my knees
But our love has been lost
In this graveyard I've been tossed
In the forest of love

Now I see you
Bleached from the light
Lying down
Under the sun

In the forest of love
Is where I found you
The forest of love
Is where I could lose you
One step in
Is one step out
I was lost
And you're without
Acres of heart
Broken stories to tell
I wouldn't be sad
If I knew you were well
In the forest of love
