It's moving faster toward you
One last chance to run away
Raging flared and prowling
The time has come and it's here to stay

Will you do nothing
I thought I could trust you
You'd stand up beside me
You would not come from hiding

Here I lay the broken fighter
Am I the one to blame
Here I lay torn apart to pieces

I am lost from shame
I am lost from shame

Gather up your things and recollect
Run away from your hiding place
Just leave me be like it really mattered
One day you'll meet me face to face

Don't be afraid
I'm right behind you
And all along
All along you knew

Here I lay the broken fighter
Am I the one to blame
Here I lay torn apart to pieces
I am lost from shame
I am lost

Here I lay the broken fighter
Would you run from your fate
Here I lay torn apart to pieces
Return to this hiding place
Return to this hiding place
