

Insidious Frustration "Unreachable End"

Visit "Unreachable End" on MotoLyrics.com

When I look at myself
Reflections of destiny
Clouded souls of pain
Dreams gone down the drain

How am I to move onward
When all seems to be lost
Why am I to suffer
I'm losing at all costs

Here is where I go
This is where I part
Drowning all my hopes
My dreams will fall apart

Now I look at myself
Now it's gone all wrong
This life is nothing more
The path is just too long

How am I to look back
When everything was lost
Now it's time to decide
A new life to unlock

Here was where I left
This was where I've gone
Drowned all of my hopes
My dreams have now moved on

To make all of this clear
The end of the dream is near
I always knew it would end this way
The last of the days will end today
