It's such a certain move Don't throw it right back on me It's such a certain move Open your eyes so you can see

You look like you should know So let the four winds blow I think it's time to go

It's such a certain move Just turn your mind from night to day It's such a certain move I could believe in what you say

You look like you should know So let the four winds blow I think it's time to go

It's such a certain move Don't throw it right back on me It's such a certain move Open your eyes so you can see

It's such a certain move From time to time and day to day It's such a certain move What does it matter anyway

It's such a certain move From time to time and day to day It's such a certain move What does it matter anyway

I could believe in what you say What does it matter anyway
