When I look into your eyes
I can see the fire of desire reflect to me
Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Holding me the way you do
I just can't deny that you feel the same way too
Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Don't you know that I care about you?
But I just can't wait give it, give it to me

When you're lying next to me
I just get the urge to consummate ecstasy
Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Holding me the way you do
I just can't deny that you feel the same way too
Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Don't you know that I care about you?
But I just can't wait, give it, give it to me

Look at me while I tell you 'bout love
Don't you know that you should never doubt love?
With you near I feel you warm inside
When it comes to the real thing there's no compromise

Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Don't you know that I care about you?
But I just can't wait, give it to me, give it to me

Look at me while I tell you 'bout love
Don't you know that you should never doubt love?
With you near I feel you warm inside
When it comes to the real thing there's no compromise

When you're lying next to me
I just get the urge to consummate ecstasy
When I look into your eyes
I can feel the fire of desire reflect to me

Give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me
Oh, give me your love
Give it to me, give it to me

Don't you know that I care about you
But I just can't wait
Don't you know that I care about you
So why should we hesitate

After all were in love with each other
So why should we wait
Give it to me, give it to me, oh
