I need a minute to make my mind up
And you know that time is a sacrifice
In a minute I'll maybe wind up
All the dreams and desires that can't be thought of twice
Everyday I look everytime I see
Don't need a minute to make my mind up
But it's all different now that this is all happening to me
Just need a minute to make my mind up

I need a minute to make my mind up

Everyday I look and everytime I see
Don't need a minute to make my mind up
But it's all different now that this is all happening to me
Just need a minute to make my mind up

I need a minute to make my mind up
Wouldn't want to rush into a thing like this Cos you know it's the kind of feeling
That you long for so much you cannot resist

Everyday I look everytime I see
Don't need a minute to make my mind up
But it's all different now that this is all happening to me
Just need a minute to make my mind up

I need a minute to make my mind up
Just need a minute to make my mind up
I need a minute to make my mind up
Just need a minute
Just need a minute
Just need a minute
Just need a minute
