I woke up today
With nothing left to say
You were here in my dreams again
If only all those things I just saw were there...
I woke up and fade away
They fade away!

Fantasy just left
And I'm here to stay
I couldn't keep my dream so you ran away
If only I could get in your arms all day
Forget about everything... about everything!

Just spend the night away
Holding you close
Remembering that day
When I saw you...

Without your love
I can't keep dreaming without you
Without your love
I can't keep living without you
Can't keep dreaming without you!
Without your love...
Remember you're the one!
