How are you today?
Me-I'm not doin' so well
Been out here lost for days,
In this living hell
I'm not the only one
I've got a friend over there
Starin' at the sun
Somewhere I went wrong
I wanna take it back
I'm now looked down upon
There's no stigma that I lack
I'm still a human being
So could you spare me change
'cause I've not the means
I'm not the only one
Singing this tune
Walkin' down the streets
Na-na-na-na
Society vision smeared
Something picture perfect
Has become unclear
Immaculate thoughts oppresed
They've pushed me down with no regrets
Na-na-na-na
