"Nothing To Lose"

Willing. Waiting. I never knew this was inside of me.
Im Dreaming. Facing my future now whatever it may be.
Im on the brink and wide awake.
An open mind. An unknown fate.
Ive still got time so I wont fight destiny.
At times I feel like Im alone, but then I think about my friends.

I know that they're in the same boat and I have sympathy for them.
I know they feel the way I do, not knowing there is to come.
They know I'm feeling that way too and they know that they're not alone.
Nothing to lose.
