Won't talk about her
And who needs friends?
Don't want them to wear you down
Like a rock in the ocean or glass in the sea

I know it's painful but it's true
I know one day this will make sense to you

Don't wear her clothes
Or even be seen
You know it has to be this way
When you're a secret part of me

I know it's painful but it's true
I know one day this will make sense to you

You've got me running around and around
(And around and around and around)
You think tomorrow would never come
(Around and around and around)

You've got me running around and around
(And around and around and around)
You think I was born yesterday

Won't lie about these things you say
Now this gets easier every day
Can't give you the child you so badly want
Or even mend your wounded love

I know it's painful but it's true
I know one day this will make sense to you

You've got me running around and around
(And around and around and around)
You think tomorrow would never come
(Around and around and around)

You've got me running around and around
(And around and around and around)
You think I was born yesterday

You've got me running around and around
You've got me running around and around
You've got me running around and around
You've got me running around and around

You've got me running around
You've got me running around
You've got me running around
You've got me running around

I know it's painful but it's true
I know one day this will make sense to you
