You, you gave up everything for me.
But your not worth it anymore.
You don't know what your missing,
I am the spark and you are the sun... x4

Now is the time to rise, to the occasion
Follow your dreams, and look to the skyX2

Torch the fields

These fields that are burning,
Are desperate for rain.
They need relief from this burning heat.
Help them escape this dry terrain.

The snakes on the plane, caused some chaos.
The pilot died, and dived bombed into the dry terrain.
The explosion, burst into flames.

Torch the fields, and burn everyone alive.
Torch the fields, and burn everyone alive.
