Been bad, Saturn makes your mind break in pieces
Been bad, so you cannot find the dimensions
But it will be around this box that I've given to you
You will know that you'll breathe my vapors every time that you pass through this room
Pass through this room
Walk through my gloom

Daphne you find me

Daphne, when you find me let the blood drive and come lie with me Daphne, symmetry you can't help but admire what a joy through this Is be bad, Saturn makes your mind break in pieces

Been bad, so you cannot find the dimensions
It will be around these spots that I've given to you
You will know that you'll breathe my vapors every time
that you pass through this room
Pass through this room
Walk through my gloom

Daphne you find me

Daphne when you find me to put you were inside use that for my memory Daphne symmetry you can't help but admire what a joy through this is to be Daphne come as on display will you find your way to draw the things of looking damp around your blushing ambition

Blushing ambition... x3

I found you inside my mind
I lost you inside my mind
I found you inside my mind
I lost you inside my mind

I was a child, I was a vice, a coyote, traditions locations
facts
I was a child, I was a vice a coyote, traditions locations

facts

Erase them all perhaps Erase them all
Erase them all perhaps
My own thing, my own thing

Now you're all that I have here
Now we can't remember
But you could fall back on lust when you've learn to wait They can be like the friends and neighbors you will get to appreciate them

I have inside me some strange glow
Im still enjoying this that's why I made a mess
Im still enjoying this that's why I made a mess
That's why I made a mess
