In your eyes, I am magnified
I peep your sides, I do fantasize
I make your mind and pretend that you've lied
I take it all the way, I take it all the way
'Cause you taste just like the river

Baby, you've played my heart
But the way that you've played, it was art

In your eyes, I've been televised
Great big lies, as evil as your flies
I meditate to grow wise, I declassify
I take it all the way, I take it all the way
'Cause you taste just like the others

Baby, you've played my heart
But the way that you've played, it was art

Games for days, where did you find them?
Games all day, we're thankful to find them
Games all day, help me to shine them
Play all day, I won't let the party die

I can't say I've seen them parked
But I will say I've seen them move
I can't say I've seen them parked
But I will say I've seen them move

You know you're my queen of hearts
And I come back and see you soon
I can't say I've seen them parked
I will say I've seen them move

'Cause babe, you've played my heart today
But the way (that) you've played, it was art

Games for days, where did you find them?
Games all day, we're thankful to find them
Games all day, help me to shine them
Play all day, I won't let the party die

'Cause this is how we learn (this is amazing)
Oh, this is how we learn (this is amazing)
Oh, this is how we learn (this is amazing)
