Yes I sure miss the early days
I was so drunk
Tied up in so many ways
Looking for the sanctity of love cause
I might make you handsome
I might give you me
And handsome is getting awfully tough
Oh to have my peace

Now we're starting up the rain again
Starting up the rain again
Starting to look the same again
Isn't that a shame?

And it goes fine
A fine wide mile
You'll be there for me sweetie pie
You'll be there for the dream car
You go running away
Cause I might make you handsome
I might if you plead
Try the long way back
You could stay travel with the black cab
You can stay travelling with the black cab
Baby that's alright with me

Bitch slap maybelline, stay hidden, yeah remain
unseen
Bitch slap maybelline, stay hidden, yeah remain
unseen
Bitch slap maybelline, stay hidden, yeah remain
unseen
Bitch slap maybelline, stay hidden, yeah remain
unseen

Babe don't break, time breaks down
Baby, at this rate time should slow down.
