If my eyes deceive me, I wouldn't be surprised.
Who is left to lead me, I need to decide.
What to receive,
Why to believe,
Where to send to,
Who is left to see...
The entropy inside of me.

Opened eyes will guide me, the patterns will emerge.
Insanity or genius, I am on the edge.
Trust the system,
Trust the spiral,
I believe,
I will finally see...
The face of God inside of me.

Faith In Chaos!!!

It lays
Between the lines.
One cannot see,
Purity is not enough to define.
We must combine
Theory to see
The spiral, the model of human design.

Faith In Chaos!!!
