Certain moments, that I value,
Sentimental, can't be measured now.

Here, inside, all the answers.
Keep them hidden, all that matters now.
I can see them, with their fingers,
Reaching for, the thing that I adore.

You take away from me,
Stop it, stop it.
You take away from me,
This is my life.

Mixed emotions, blur my vision.
Thought you were my equal, you are not.

You can hide, if you want to.
Keep in mind, I won't be your
Dirty lie. Will you show your
Silver tongue, while my back is turned?

You take away from me,
Stop it, stop it.
You take away from me,
This is my life.
You take away from me,
Stop it, stop it.
You take away from me,
This is mine.

(2x) Welcome to my world. Welcome to my prize.
