Loved by everyone, but hated by yourself.
What's a boy to do?
Paranoia is seeing things your way,
They're coming after you.

Your interest in yourself
Has made you lose your health
Ever more each day.
When you're on your own
There's always more to say. . .
So the voices say.

(4x) They're taking me away!

You are not yourself, turned into something else
That we cannot explain.
You are not alone, long before today
Help was on the way.

(4x) You are not your own.

Away!
(3x) They're taking me away!

Words - Rev
Music - St James/Rev
