Your whole life's a flat-line, such a sorry sight to see.
Been raised your entire life, told who your supposed to be.
We come from a long line, soon to be a dying breed.
Right about now I think it's time...
We take the world and suck it dry!

We are the future you never planned...
We are the children of the damned.
We want the world and we want it bad...
We are the children of the damned!

Welcome to the front-line, of this bloody war.
Failed role-models of the corporate age...
Vs the drop-outs of the church and state.
Bite the hand that feeds you, a fist-full of fucking lies.
Say goodbye to the old machine...
Raise your glass to the dead regime!

We are the future you never planned...
We are the children of the damned.
We want the world and we want it bad...
We are the children of the damned!

A shock to the system, a universal disbelief.
Say goodbye to the old machine...
Raise your glass to the dead regime!

We are the future you never planned...
We are the children of the damned.
We want the world and we want it bad...
We are the children of the damned!

The Damned...The Damned...The Damned!!!
