

Into Darkness "Pause For Effect"

The blind are in a rage
About the way we all were arranged
Like the monkey throwing shit
At the man who locked his cage

I'm fed up with attention whores
Find new things to tell me,
To keep from getting bored

In a still life picture, worth a thousand words
Portraits of desire to leave this silent world
Once, i called it beauty
Now there's nothing left to say
Look into these eyes and see how I have changed

I'm fed up with attention whores
Find new things to tell me,
To keep from getting bored

Pause for Effect
Not a thing needs to be said
It's all been said, better than you can

Keep on asking yourself why you do this
When you know without doubt words are useless
Let your eyes lead the way, to say what you need to say

I like it...yeah...this communication breakdown!

Pause for Effect
Not a thing needs to be said
It's all been said, better than you can

I refuse, I refuse,
I refuse to do this, your words are useless

I like it...yeah...this communication breakdown!
