Mike was run over by a steamroller last night
My mommy said that he would never come back to me,
'Cos right now Mike lies splattered all over SS3&
(Chorus)
And I want him back!
I want him back! I want him back!
My kitty kat!
Oh what a terrible fate to happen to my precious one,
He's now as flat as a pancake, oh Mikey why didn't you run?
They told me to get a dog, or another cat
To ease the pain of my loss, and to forget&.
That I want him back!
I want him back!
I want him back!
My kitty kat!

(repeat Chorus)
I scooped up Mikey's flesh from all over the road,
His eyes were all eaten up,
Mikey looked like a toad
I finally realised that my Mikey was dead,
He remains in a jar&next; to my bed!
(Repeat Chorus)
I don't care if he's all guts and bones
I don't care if he's all over stones
So what if his eyes are green jelly
I want him,
I want him BACK now!
