Everytime I look at you
I wish you looked my way
And flash me that dazzling smile that really makes my day
But of course it's just a dream a dream that won't come true and for unrequited love I wrote this song for you I always think of how it'd be if we were together
You and me holding hands
(It's a dream)
I can picture it right now

You and me,
It's a dream,
It's a possibility...
When I look out of my window
I hope you look up at me
If only you could read my heart
My love so true you'd see How empty my life would be
If I don't have you
And for unrequited love I wrote this song for you...
..it's a dream... it's a Possibility...
