Followed all the rules
Did it get me somewhere, I don't know
Feel so insecure
Wouldn't show it that's something for fools
I know somehow it'll have to be better than this Somewhere out there, there will be someone to take me away

I'm so sick of this done looking for bliss
Wish someone would just give me a sign
I'm not saying I'm right just to tired to fight
If I knew I wouldn't do that again
Beaten down before
Before anyone gave it a chance
Easily ignored

Judgments made based on nothing at all
I know someday it will make sense to me i am sure
But until then, I'll be waiting for miracles

I wouldn't do that again
