I want to say to you, that a stone is in my shoe I want to talk with you, 'cause my notions have become true I want to have a friend, to go with her until the end Chorus: I am the monkey in the mirror, but I see no monkey in your face There is no difference between us, but I see the sunshine in your eyes I don't wanna be perfect, 'cause it's the same effect I know that I have mistakes, and I also crumble with cakes Now I talk with you, about the stone which is in my shoe
Chorus
