Nobody pays attention
Yet I'm searching for someone that would probably accept me
I'm now in a hurry
To have you daily
Still I am a blank and a plain page
Still I want to let you fill each
Come on early come on early

Make up your mind to hold the pen Share your life then to shelter mine as well
Be in a hurry
To marry me

Still I am a blank and a plain page
Still I want to let you fill each
Come on early come on early
Be convinced that I'm allowing you
Allowing you to fill in the pages of my life
