I discern it's over
I've learned to live alone
I am not pathetic
Brighter life anew

Starting to love again
Living a vivid life
Now here you are
Suddenly stalking me

Chorus:

Why the hell you're here
I don't need you
I don't love you
Why the hell you're here
I hate you and
I hate seeing you

Well it's over
Believe me
I've given you all my life
But what do I get from you

What did you give in return
Why the hell you left me
Distressing my life anew
Pestering my emotion

Chorus:

Why the hell you're here
I don't need you
I don't love you
Why the hell you're here
I hate you and
I hate seeing you
