Sucking the blood from the wounded and feeble
The horror unfolds, the carnage is real
Escape is impossible, screams are suppressed
Every last human will die

The agile hunter is stalking his prey
Only stop to his rampage, the light of day
But once darkness falls and the moon is in sight
One can only hope to survive the Night

Now the undead seek
A victim to devour, a soul to be reaped
Tearing into flesh exposed
Humanity lost, and cravings take hold

Blood fully drained, the corpse comes to life
Eternal damnation from one single bite
The process begun, from man to beast
The last of life fades, it's time to feast

The time has begun for the invasion to commence
The army of undead grows
Hunting their pray at all hours of the night
Their thirst, it knows no bounds

Through all the blood
And through all the fear,
This insatiable urge is spread

Nothing will stop
The terrors of the night,
Evil, is being bred

Now freedom is granted at the loss of salvation
Roaming the night, without limitations
A force that's unstoppable, and cannot be beaten
This is the degradation of man

Civilization
Is helpless and wasted
Countries fall

Humanity is erased

The only survivors
Are cunning and strong
Each night they survive
Unbearably long

Civilization
Is helpless and wasted
Countries fall
Humanity is erased

The only survivors
Are cunning and strong
Each night they survive
Unbearably long

As their food supply grows scarce
The growth of their numbers, suddenly inverse
The vampires weaken,
Control starts to slip
The survivors empowered,
With desire to live

The battle resumes, with mankind renewed
On the offensive again, they will no longer be food
They attack in the day, and stay hidden at night
On these humans, our species relies

The vampires gather in expectation
Those that survive, driven mad with starvation
In a final attempt, they rush into day
Catching the humans by surprise

Thousands of vampires crumble under the sun
But several outlast, reaching the human compound
With the humans asleep, they swarm all around
Mankind dies without a sound

Civilization
Is helpless and wasted
Countries fall
Humanity is erased

The vampires will starve
Food supply dry
Their thirst was unquenchable
Soon they will die

Civilization
Is helpless and wasted

Countries fall
Humanity is erased

The vampires will starve
Food supply dry
Their thirst was unquenchable
Soon they will die

Now it's finished

Now the process is complete,
Humanity has fallen underneath

Trampled by superior beings
Who converted them to blood-thirsty fiends

Now the process is complete,
Humanity has fallen underneath

Trampled by superior beings
Who converted them to blood-thirsty fiends

Now the process is complete,
Humanity has fallen underneath

Trampled by superior beings
Who converted them to blood-thirsty
Fiends
