Rolling with the flow but I
Don't know just where the fuck the heading to
No I seek no forgiveness the sins were on
My chest take all the blame myself

Been led astray again
I thought I had a friend

Alone I whisper the words
I never got to say
I know there's never
Gonna be a way no things
Aint always that they used to be
The tears of yesterday are filling me

Life is a holiday cannot change
My ways this one way
Trip to reality what I love
Today I might hate the next
Love those who deserve and
Fuck the rest

No I wont ever let you keep me
Down no longer
Pushing me the fuck around
I wont let you lead
Me all astray again
