"Desert Sands"

Soon the invocation calls,
The angels bring forth locust swarms
To a world in chaos, sent to terminate

Those who do not bear his sign
They will not be there
After apocalypse dai it's all too late

(chorus)
Doomsday... I'll penetrate the war,
A penchant lurks in obscure
To save them from themselves
Will cause a greater fear
Yet known to the world,
They don't see their time is near Spoken prophecy, repent; to the land beyond
We shall transhend
For the final gathering of the end

Yes take my hand, we'll all make it through
To the secret land
... To the desert...
