(Michael Hutchence/Andrew Farriss)
If this was easy, where would I be?
I haven't said I have all the answers, how could anyone?
Can't stop looking at the lights all around my head
I'm missing the darker side of the man
He's on his knees looking for the door
But everybody's giving him applause
Crashed the car into a wall
But everybody's calling for more
It's called the end of rock and roll

These days are numbered counted out in loss
Faith and spirit walking hand in hand
To meet a wall made of sound
But where does that sound find a place today Maybe we came to the wrong show, I've seen this before

It's called the end of rock and roll

Oh shadow take me leave nothing still
'cause I've not seen the miracle, how could anyone?
We ask too much of the song to come and save our souls
When all it's trying to do now is save it's own Maybe we came to the wrong show, I've seen this
before
Maybe we came to the wrong show, I've seen this
It's called the end of rock and roll

It's called the end of rock and roll
