Will you rise from the shadows
To our hallowed place
Where we'd often lay
In our golden days

Oh I've prayed for salvation
Since I fell from grace
Led myself astray
As you stole away

But if I ever lost my heart
I found mercy

Will you come to the waters?
Where I met you
Oh where you left me so
Where I lost my soul

If you wake from your slumber
And you bare your soul
And you come back so
I won't let you go

If you ever find your heart
Please forgive me

Will you ever find your heart?
