Why complicate the reasons behind preceding failures
lying within us?

Look beyond deceit, journey through the corridors of convoluted mazes of departure.

Knowing damn well that our previous encounters were merely known as stepping stones.

Onward to our inteded destiny.

Abolish all, all preconcieved, notions of our former selfs.

[Chorus:]

This time around

We are back with a vengeance

Groomed with agility,

Our styles packed with versatility.

So brace yourselfs for this devastation

A punch to the face

Prepared and inclined to detonate this world

Go fuck yourselfs

[Chorus]

No holds barred.

Mediocrity considered as fair play.

Our strongest beliefs.

Your narrowed point of views

You don't deserve to be alive

Senseless morons will never take our self respect.
