Moments I daydream of you standing there.
Your radiant smile and your long brown hair.
I'm fearful to move now I'm fearful to think.
You're anticipating the moment I blink.
Ran out of gas and we had to hitch, you made us feel so much more than just rich.
Lived in a tent, school bus, shack
You entered the room, there was nothing it lacked.

Mother Meagan,
When will I stop breaking?
I need this pain so I never forget,
When you made the sun rise and when you made it set.
Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I keep breaking.

Time I awaken, bursting with tears.
You shoo away my demons and you caught my fears.
And when we were broke and didn't have much,
You would warm us with your motherly touch.

Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I need this pain so I never forget,
When you made the sun rise and you made it set.
Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I keep breaking.

Mother Meagan.
Can't let it out, let it out, let it out, let it out, now
Can't let it out, let it out, let it out, let it out, now

Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I need this pain so I never forget,
When you made the sun rise and you made it set.
Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I need this pain so I never forget,
When you made the sun rise and you made it set.

Mother Meagan.
When will I stop breaking?
I keep breaking.

Mother Meagan.
I keep breaking
