Waving from the harbour
There behind a wave
Another boat is sailing
Blind into the sand
Navigate the island
Sweep a little wreck
Weigh another
Anchor here
I live in a lighthouse
On planet me
I project my heart out
On the beam
And here
In the lighthouse
The mood
Is harbour dark
I'm burning my heart out
From a fire
To a spark
When it's out there
Above the water

Colour of the sand
Wing of dust and hover
Rest upon the hand
Could have been a sailor
Navigate the night
Dying like and insect
In the light
I live in a lighthouse
Here on planet me
I project my heart out
To the sea and here
In the lighthouse
The mood is Harbour dark
I'm burning my heart out
From a fire
To a spark
Then it's dark
