Fill it up and put aside
All the tears that broke the tide
All the creases and the faults

Break or take up heal the storm
One that has to find a hole
Like a thousand homeless souls

I can feel it, growin
I can see your idle motion
It's a violin dancin always talking this commotion
Can you feel it, rollin
Silence has spoken
We've fallen to an ocean
I'm drownin (X3)

Surf the sea and kill the lies
Be the part and break the ice
Tell the stories left untold
No it doesn't seem to make much sense to make reality pretence
Or to ask to be alone

I can feel it, growin
I can see ur idle motion
It's a violin dancin always talking this commotion
Can you feel it, rollin
Silence has spoken
We've fallen to an ocean
I'm drownin (X3)

I bet u can hide in another place
Change ur name wear a different face
Cos nothing else nothing else
Can take me away
Take me away
