Can't believe you're calling me
Asking for a recipe cooking it for somebody else Funny that you took your time guess I must be on your mind
Bet you keep the score to yourself

But it's not the first time you're feeding me lines
Asking how I am when you know that I'm fine
You can't disguise you know you can't hide
The reason why you're calling this time

Oh I must've been good
If you still think about me
A whole lotta better than you thought it would be
I must've been good
But you don't wanna believe
You might have had it better with me I must have been good

Seems like yesterday took your stuff and ran away
Claiming that i wasnt enough
And now you wanna take it back
Sorry for the way you act
Tell me that you miss me so much

But it's not the first time you're feeding me lines
Asking how I am when you know that I'm fine
You can't disguise you know you can't hide
The reason why you're calling this time

Oh I must've been good
If you still think about me
A whole lotta better than you thought it would be
I must've been good
But you don't wanna believe
You might have had it better with me I must have been
good

No matter what you do
No matter what you say to me
I know it wouldn't be right

No it wouldn't be right

Oh I must've been good

If you still think about me

A whole lotta better than you thought it would be

I must've been good

But you don't wanna believe

good
