Some people live their lives before our eyes but no one seems to care you can see it if it's i love u & u love me let it out and set us free you & i, will make it till the end some people lying through the years let them know there's life some people dying through the years, as they go we know that we are going too some people, go away have got no one to care end up all alone, and when you notice that one day you'll be like them do take care, this feeling seems to scare you and i, won't make it till the end
