Should i stay
Should i go

It's better if i go
I can learn and i can see
I'm not wanted anymore
Rather be here on my own Without you

It's better to move on was in love but had to wait can't take it anymore, can't you see I'm on my own

I'm not the one who loves I'm not the one who seems to care like a rough block, melted inside I've got to go, got to move on go on my bed, try to forget what we had, what we might have had what we've lost

what i gained, how i prayed to have you to love you
