Here, see the amber the flame let me be Feel the rhythm when music begins
Let me show you tonight
How we can walk through the clouds

What can i do with this love that i'm in?
Am i breathing it straight from within?
Am i living tonight the dreams of a thousand smiles?

I swear we'll ride the wind
And gold will shine down from the moon on silent treasures
and then high on our wings
In veils of mist i'll pray the pleasure come to stay

Here till the morning will set us apart
I do promise and truly believe that the angels will know And guide me straight to your heart

I swear we'll ride the wind
And gold will shine down from the moon on silent
treasures
and then high on our wings
In veils of mist i'll pray the pleasure come to stay
