No one but You
Knew I was lost and scared
You picked me up
At last I found
Someone who cared

No one but You
Held out a hand to me
You held me close
Showed me who I am
All I can be

Out on my own
I was standing alone
And I ran to You

Tears took their toll
But You opened my soul
And that's when I finally knew
There was no one but You

No one but You
Gave me my life again
I didn't fall
And I know why
You gave me strength to try
Your sweet love got me through
No one but You
No one but You
No one but You
