"Rocky Road To Dublin"

In the merry month of June, from me home I started left the girls of Tuam, so sad and broken hearted saluted father dear, kissed me darlin' mother drank a pint of beer, me grief and tears to smother, then off to reap the corn, leave where I was born, cut a stout black thorn to banish ghost an goblins, bought a pair of brogues, rattlin' over the bugs, frightened all the dogs, on the rocky road to Dublin,

one two three four five hunt the hare and turn it down the rocky road and all the way to Dublin
whack-fo-lol-le-ra

Well in Mullingar that night, I rested limbs so weary, started by daylight, me spirits bright and cheery, took a drop o' the pure that keeps me heart from sinkin',
that's the paddy's cure whenever he's on for drinking.
see the Lassies smile, laughing all the while at me curious style, (it) would set your heart a-bubbling, asked if I was hired, wages I required 'til I was almost tired of the rocky road to Dublin

hunt the hare and turn it down
to Dublin

Well in Dublin next arrived, I thought it'd be a pity to be so soon deprived a view of that fine city, so then I took a stroll down among the quality, me bundle it was stolen in a neat locality, something crossed me mind, then I looked behind, no bundle could I find upon me stick a-wobblin', inquiring for the rogue, said me connaught brogue wasn't much in vogue

on the rocky road to Dublin

hunt the hare and turn it down
to Dublin

Well from there I got away, me spirits never failin', landed on the quay just as the ship was sailin', captain at me roared, said that no room had he, then I jumped aboard, a cabin found for Paddy, down among the pigs, played some hearty rigs, danced some hearty jigs, the water 'round be bubblin', when off holy head wished meself was dead or better far instead

to Dublin

The boys of Liverpool, when me safely landed, called meself a fool, I could no longer stand it, blood began to boil, temper I was losin', poor ould Erin's Isle, they began abusin', Hoorah me soul says I, shaleighly I let fly, Galway boys were by and saw I was a-hobblin', with a loud hooray, joined in the effray, we quickly cleared the way for the rocky road to Dublin

to Dublin
