I've detoxed myself from all life
No one is in my heart
Dark inside me silent I'll be
Watching you like God
Whisper into the ear of lunacy
No one can tell a lie as well as me
You're not trusted
You are a suspect to me

Father disease I'm on my knees
Come embrace me now
Put in position of total control
I play the master now you pay the toll
I'll destroy you
You are nothing to me

I fake love
Come hurt with me
I'm afraid of
What has become of me?
I sold my soul away
