Do I feel like I should?
Is there more?
Can I steel
and pretend it's just reward.
Can I have all the love I've never had
as I watch the world going by.

Am I soon?
Or am I just too late.
Are your wrongs
for preventing my escape?
What we found isn't love
but isn't hate
as we watch the world going by.

Watch the world going by.
Times we lost were times
we never tried.
Watch the world going by.

You begin and you give love,
there's no end somewhere, someday.
As you stop to break away.
But do you see
All the things that meet the eye
when you watch the world going by.

Watch the world going by.
Watch the world going by.
Watch the world going by.
