"Reach Out"

It's over your head and you don't seem to understand
One word I say and you can't live your life trying to run away

You're fighting your friends all you win everybody
But it never ends you wearing me out

Come on, reach out, reach out
And let someone in to your life

Don't get me wrong you always apologize
It's just your way of making a scene

You need to be loved
It's not such a crime

Come on, reach out, reach out
And let someone in to your life

Come on, reach out, reach out
And let someone in to your life

I said over your head you just don't seem to understand
One word I say and you can't live your life

You got so much love
It's burning inside

Come on, reach out, reach out
And let someone in to your life

Come on, reach out, reach out
And let someone in to your life

Reach out, reach out
And let someone into your life
