You tried so hard to ruin my life
And all those words
They cut like a knife
And all you did was
Try to bring me down
Well I survived and
I'm still around yeah
I learned to live
With the guilt and shame
And now I know
How to live with a name
No more will I cower with fear
I voice my power from far and near
I survived the hell
You put me through
I survived without you

Even though you hurt my pride
I haven't curled up and died
I wanna know how you're feeling right now
Are you looking to
Escape somehow yeah
Times were hard
And times were rough
But I learned I had to be tough
I
I'd like to be known that
